here? Senator Koch, would you please record your presence? Senator George, Senator Cope, Senator Keyes, Senator Rumery, Senator Maresh, Senator Hasebroock, Senator Simon, would you record your presence please? Senator Hoagland. Senator Frank Lewis, would you please record your presence? Senator Pirsch, would you please record your presence? Senator Labedz. Senator Hoagland, would you please record your presence? The House is under Call. Senator Chambers, Senator Pirsch is the only one absent. May we start with the roll call?

CLERK: (Read roll call vote as found on page 969 of the Legislative Journal.) 17 ayes, 24 nays, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Motion lost and the Call is raised. What is the next amendment?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator DeCamp and Fowler now move to amend. There were two separate amendments offered by Senators DeCamp and Fowler. The first is found on page 933 of the Journal, Mr. President. The first amendment is on 933 and the second is on 934.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, Senator DeCamp, do you want to explain the amendment or Senator Fowler, which one? Senator DeCamp, do you want to explain the amendment?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Both of them or how many of them are there? Can't we just take them both at the same time? One is technical corrections and the other, believe it or not, is an amendment that I thought we had already adopted. I thought I had turned it in. I explained it on the floor. You may remember I said if somebody has been discharged in bankruptcy there has developed a practice where, and not just small loan companies, anybody, they will go in and they will say, okay, we will help you out or we will give you a loan but first you have to reaffirm the old debt, the one that was discharged in bankruptcy and you have got to pay that too. This is to make that an illegal practice for which they could be penalized heavily, up to $1,000, lawyers fees, so on and so forth, so I urge you to adopt it. As I said, I thought we already had. The other makes technical corrections. Isn't that right, Steve?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator DeCamp, did you just get through explaining amendment one?

SENATOR DeCAMP: I move amendment one and two.
